Arrival and settling into the vibrant city of Dublin.

Day 2 (Monday, 27 March)

- Dublin Discovery & Educational Insights
- Guided tour of Dublin and an introductory session on the Irish Education System.

Days 3-5 (Tuesday to Thursday, 28-30
March)

Workshop Series with Joe Dale

In-depth exploration of digital tools and strategies for effective teaching.

In this course, independent languages consultant from the UK, Joe Dale will showcase a variety of examples of good practice in synchronous and asynchronous approaches to using technology to enhance learning in and out of the classroom. He will explore the different challenges involved and suggest ways in which teachers have dealt with the restrictions of learning whilst remaining covid-secure.

Learning Objectives:

- Gain understanding into how technology can promote collaboration across schools and allow learners the opportunity to provide feedback
- Learn how to use a range of apps and web tools to encourage independent learning and autonomous practice, leading to more effective pedagogy
- Take away new approaches for using technology to channel creativity and personalised learning
- Effectively utilising technology to facilitate formative assessment and shorten the feedback loop
